Steps were initiated to fill these posts well in advance. However, procedural formalities involved in these appointments have taken relatively more time. All possible efforts are being made to fill up these vacant posts very soon.

Problems and difficulties faced by NRIs

*129. SHRI P. PRABHAKAR REDDY: Will the Minister of TOURISM AND CULTURE be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government's attention has been drawn to the news-item captioned, "We are treated like any other visitor: NRIs" which appeared in the Asian Age dated the 18th June, 2002;

(b) if so, what is Government's reaction thereto; and

(c) the steps proposed to be taken to address the problems and difficulties being faced by the Non-Resident Indians as highlighted in the above-mentioned news-item?

THE MINISTER OF TOURISM AND CULTURE (SHRI JAGMOHAN): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) and (c) The Government of India and the State Governments through various initiatives have been inviting investment by NRIs into India. Several packages and incentives for attracting NRI investment have also been developed which are promoted amongst NRIs overseas through special missions and through the Embassies/High Commissions. A special brochure on investment opportunities in tourism has also been brought out and is distributed to the NRIs/Persons of Indian Origin (PIOs)/ other foreigners who are interested in investing in India through India Tourism Offices. Single Widow clearance facilities and investors' Escort services have also been provided by various States with a view to simplify the implementation procedure and for expediting NRIs investment proposals. Through the introduction of several progressive measures requirement for procedures has been greatly reduced for obtaining investment clearances.

With a view to project the importance that India attaches to NRIs/ PIOs 9th January has been earmarked to be celebrated annually as the Pravasi Bharatiya Divas. The first such function is scheduled to be held in 2003 where large number of NRIs/PIOs from all over the world are proposed to be invited to show case India and its investment potential.
